Agent H. M. Brown and family are back at the Depot again. They were down in Arizona looking at a place offered them but there was no schools and the climate was so hot they decided to return to the best place they knew of. They left their little son, "Dos" with his Grandmother at Tucumcari where he is taking Osteopathic treatment for the cure of the Rheumatism which has so long afflicted him.

H. Goodman was out looking over his ranches and cattle wednesday. He is getting into the stock business conservatively and on a paying basis

Malaquias Baca was up from Mosquero Tuesday on business between trains.

E. W. Coombs, of Tangier, Okla. is the name of a very prepossessing young man who is here giving us the "once-over" with a view to locating on a claim.

We have decided to attend the meeting of the New Mexico Editorial Association at Albuquerque next month. We are especially interested in some matters that are to be discussed at this meeting and a special invitation was all we needed to make us attend. This we have received and we are glad to be recognized as a part of the great educational factor that is to free New Mexico from medieval conditions and make her a modern state.
